

Strawberry roan gelding,
Red Rhone

White filly (daughter of Historicallyunique, the first ever registered White standardbred in North America)
Im A Sabino

For more information, visit:
www.skewbaldracingstables.com

Right: Aarchen markings, also called
'lacing' or 'catbacked.'

Below: The unique brindle markings of Skewbald Stables' Painted Tiger.

[Sabino: white hair on dark skin base • Tobiano: dark hair on white/pink skin base]

across the globe

One standardbred breeding facility in Australia gives a whole new meaning to the saying "A horse of a different colour."

Wayne Waltisbuhl's Skewbald Racing Stables in Elimbah, Queensland, is world renowned for producing uniquely coloured standardbreds. They stood skewbald stallion Rorchach, current World Record holder for fastest skewbald (1:58.6).

[Skewbald: a horse with brown & white patches]

Skewbald Racing Stables is also home to:

Medicine Dance: The only purebred double-cross skewbald standardbred in the world.

Lady Snowflake: A bay tobiano mare with extensive aarchen markings (shown with her tobiano filly Snap).